

Dear Clients,

The Commonwealth Government Gazette is no longer used for Insolvency purposes from 1st July 2012.

All ads with an ACN (apart from a Court Appointed - Liquidator Appointed Notice) are now to appear on the new Govt. Website: www.insolvencynotices.asic.gov.au.

Notices with No ACN are still to be published in a newspaper or where directed by the Court.

This is just a brief info sheet in regards to the Gazette and it no longer being used for Insolvency purposes and in no way should be relied upon in any legal or binding way.

We are continuing to provide the full range of Insolvency Notice publishing including the Insolvency Notices website.

If your having trouble or would like to take advantage of the “no pre-pay” service we can provide please contact us at the below addresses.
